

The Fairplay Promise

If I am a Spectator or Player, I promise, to the best of my ability:

- To play to win but play by the rules
- To accept the decisions of officials and coaches
- To be a positive role model
- To encourage and respect players / team mates in their efforts in sports, regardless of whether they've won or lost.
- To encourage players / team mates to reach their sporting potential.
- To display self-control whether it be on the sideline or on the field.
- To make an effort to understand the rules of the game.
- To keep winning and losing in perspective with personal challenge and enjoyment.
- To arrive at matches and practices on time and give my best at all times.
- To remember to thank the coach, supporters and opposition.
- To encourage respect for players and officials
- To remember that different children play sport for different reasons.
- To show my appreciation to those who give up their time so that the sport can happen / take place.

If I am a Coach, I promise, to the best of my ability I will:

- Be a positive role model.
- Give each player the same amount of my attention and time.
- Provide every player with the same opportunities to play the game.
- Accept officials decisions and play by the rules.
- Always be positive to all players.
- Respect players' efforts regardless of whether we have won or lost.
- Encourage respect for the opposition and officials.
- Keep winning and losing in perspective with personal challenge and enjoyment.
- Be well organised and set clear expectations for the team, to players and parents.

If I am an Official, I promise, to the best of my ability I will:

- Control the game in a fair and positive manner.
- Be consistent and fair in my decisions.
- Modify my approach to suit the participants level of ability.
- Help players understand the rules by explaining decisions where appropriate.
- Do what I can to make sure that everyone enjoys the game - including myself.
- Encourage 'FairPlay' and not tolerate foul play of any kind - always be firm and friendly.
